[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

It has come to my attention that you recently wrote an e-mail to Rev. Francis Thumbi, Pastor of St. Thomas More Parish [REDACTED] very disturbed by this e-mail and other such communications that you have authored, especially those disparaging the [REDACTED]

As a member of the [REDACTED], you should know better. You are horribly misguided in your approach to addressing what you have been facing lately in working to cease sending out unsolicited e-mails to members and their families. Your recent actions are most bothersome and very disconcerting.

Charges including creating scandal and Conduct unbecoming a [REDACTED] can be filed against you for violation of the Laws of the [REDACTED]. These charges are based on a series of e-mails you have written, including the one sent to the Pastor of St Thomas More.

Rather than your being summarily suspended from the Order, I am providing you with this final warning. If any report is received suggesting scandalous conduct or any other violation of the Laws by you, you will be immediately suspended pursuant to [REDACTED] the Laws and Rules of the [REDACTED]

This is your only warning.
